Good afternoon [redacted],

An initial search for materials matching your request has yielded well over 600 documents. These documents will be exceptionally labor-intensive to redact. Due to the extraordinarily large amount of time and resources needed to respond, the City cannot respond to your request in its current form because the public interest in producing the redacted documents is clearly outweighed by the public interest in not expending the large amount of time needed to do so. Please provide a more focused and targeted request.

Thank you,

Dan Halden
